Machines to Give Estimated $900 To Student Body

An estimated $900 income from coin machines installed in the hall, including the coke and root beer machine in the men's gym and a jukebox in the cafeteria, is expected this year, according to Mr. Sidney Ahtye, Hartnell comptroller. Last year's income of $750 was $150 more than was expected, according to Mr. Ahtye.

To serve the students at Hartnell in a better way, seven new and more workable candy machines have replaced the older machines in the hall. The old machines don't usually give back the correct change.

Scholarship Award Applications Available

Scholarship award applications are now available in the office of Miss June Handley for students who plan to transfer to a four-year college. Some of the qualifications are a "B" average and definite plans for an education or vocation.

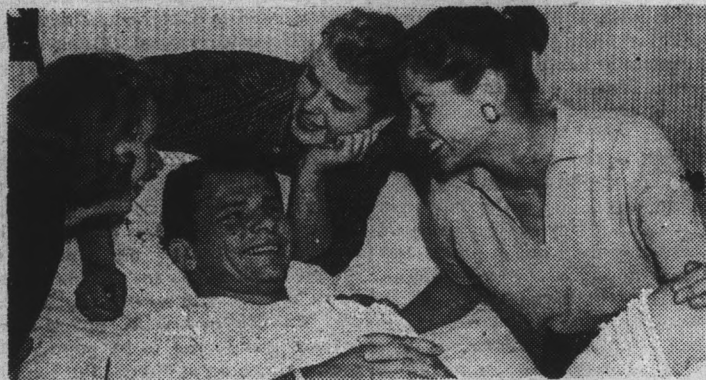

Those interested should contact Miss Handley for further information. The deadline for filling out applications is March 1.

Claude Pursel Speaks At Today's Assembly

Mr. Claude Pursel, specialist in reactor design for General Electric, will speak on "Peacetime Use of the Atom" at today's assembly from 11 a.m. to noon in the Little theater.

Classes will not be dismissed, but instructors are invited to take their classes to the assembly.

Living The Life of Rohrke

A few days of this kind of treatment should cure most anything. Hartnell football fans are hopeful it will work wonders on Dick Rohrke's broken leg. The star guard, voted outstanding lineman by his coaches and named to several "all" teams, broke his leg on the Christmas vacation trip with the college ski club. Supplying encouragement are, left to right, Nancy Suurballe, Lynne Garcia and Barbara Dollase. Monighetti photo)

Hartnell's Star Lineman Recovers Slowly From Hartnell Ski Club Trip

By LYNNE GARCIA

Dick Rohrke, Hartnell's star lineman, is recovering from Hartnell Ski club's all-ski week end. Rohrke will spend three weeks on crutches. He will then be in a smaller cast for three more weeks before being "turned loose." The actual bone breakage in his ankle is minor, but all of the ligaments were broken loose, causing great difficulties.

Rohrke, Turner, Stireman Feted At Grid Banquet

Dick Rohrke, Hal Turner and Jim Stireman received special awards at the annual football banquet held in the Portuguese hall Tuesday night.

Rohrke was named top lineman of the year, Stireman was honored as outstanding back, and Turner was selected most valuable player by the coaches.

Guest speaker was Bob Tiechnall of San Jose State college. Don Barsotti, local business man and Hartnell alumnus, was master of ceremonies.

Carol Ann Stewart and Terrie Lamacchia, Hartnell students, provided entertainment with vocal and piano selections.

Student Card Holders Get Special Privileges

Student body card holders have many privileges that the non-card holders do not have. They include school accident insurance coverage, free admission to all home athletic events, reduced rates on dramatic performances and all social events sponsored by the Associated Students, the privilege of voting at all student body elections, a free subscription to the Panther Sentinel and a membership in the Associated Students of Hartnell college.

He went off a small jump and "some stupe turned in front of me and when I saw him, I turned on my side to miss him (which I did very successfully). He was very grieved and apologized, and, anyway, my skis stuck in the snow. I need plenty of sympathy from all my teachers (make sure you put that in)," laughed Rohrke.

Rohrke will be able to continue playing football but was told he would be wise if he never tried skiing again.

Hartnell's next trip will be Feb. 15 and 16 at Yosemite. Housekeeping cabins have been reserved and as many buses as can be filled will be chartered. Late signer-uppers will be eliminated, first come first served, and no cars will be taken. A sign-up sheet is in the main hall, and 27 members have already indicated their interest. The cost of room, bed and bus will be $10.

The club's next meeting will be at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the student union, the club president, Virgil Hoadley, announces. Frank Harbin, president of the Camber Ski club, will speak on safety. Hartnell ski coaches, Mr. Lorenz Newton and Mr. James Muldoon, have been stressing the need for greater safety measures for young skiers.

Eight Hartnell Singers Chosen For Audition

Four or five students to represent Hartnell college in the 200-member junior college chorus at the Music Educators National conference in Los Angeles' Philharmonic auditorium March 24 will be chosen in an audition Feb. 5.

Committee Will Poll Students Regarding College Magazine

During 9 a.m. classes today a poll will be taken asking whether or not students would pay $1 for a magazine-type yearbook of 48 pages.

If response is adequate, a committee will ask the board of trustees Tuesday night for $1,200 for printing. The student body will guarantee to pay back to the district a minimum of $500 from sales income.

Pledge cards will be sold in March, providing interest is adequate and the district agrees to underwrite the project.

In preparation for this event, Mr. Vahe Aslanian, choral director of Hartnell and Northern California Music Educators' association president, named Leta Green, Donna Ponting, Carol Ann Stewart, Joan Oftebro, William Whitney, Doyle Pruitt, Staten Johnston and Claude Ponting as the students who hope to represent Hartnell.

Three judges, Esther Ingham, Salinas Union high school choral director; Lester Weigel, music instructor at Gonzales high school, and Ralph Kent, choral director at Watsonville high school, will select the four Hartnell representatives.

The convention music will include Schubert's "Mass in G" and Kodaly's "Te Deum." The group will be conducted by Robert Zimmerman of the Portland symphonic choirs.

Engineers Get Experience

Hungarians Give Thanks for Gifts

A letter of appreciation for Christmas gifts was received by Alpha Gamma Sigma from the Hungarian students. Maria K. Tulipan, Geza Farkas, John Bolkeny, Joseph Dubay asked the organization to convey their thanks to the Hartnell students who made their presents possible.

The letter also expressed their appreciation for the kindness Hartnell students have shown the Hungarians since their arrival at the college nearly a year ago.

Students May Borrow From Butner Fund

Hartnell students may borrow from the $920 Charles E. Butner Memorial Loan fund. The fund was established by the widow and friends of the late Mr. Butner. Worthy students may apply through Miss June Handley, dean of women.

L. Garcia Selected Editor of Sentinel

Lynne Garcia, Salinas freshman, will succeed Ralph Winter as editor of the Panther Sentinel next semester, according to an announcement by Mr. George Abbott, journalism instructor.

The change is in line with Panther Sentinel policy of giving as many journalism students as possible an opportunity to benefit from experience in editorial positions. "Ralph has done an excellent job this semester," Mr. Abbott said.

Miss Garcia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Garcia. Her father is sergeant of the state highway patrol in Salinas. A member of both the Hartnell and Camber Ski clubs, the new editor is aiming at a career in technical writing. She is majoring in journalism and art.

Miss Garcia was feature editor of

EDITORIAL . . .

DRIVING TEACHERS PLAGUE STUDENT

Bleary-eyed, trembling from fatigue and loss of sleep, fearful, easily intimidated, we students rise early and load up with books; then our poor undernourished bodies drag down the steps and turn toward the college. Must be careful though. Teachers will be about soon.

Then while crossing one of those side streets—almost an alley, really—we jump and dodge for our lives (though not with much vim, because we're so run down); a Teacher with a careless sneer on his face roars out of the alley in his wildly blue TR-3. We mutter incoherently and thank the student's patron saints (Bacchus and Morpheus) that he missed us.

Continuing warily, we at last reach the walk leading up to the college. We feel safe until, suddenly, we hear a roar behind us. We turn; a little green bug narrowly misses us. A strangely inhuman creature straddles the left front bucket seat; another Teacher. We watch carefully from the top of the flagpole while the little green car with the funny name streaks around a corner and disappears.

Then we scramble wildly into the building and streak to our lockers. We cringe there for a while and then creep to our first class. When crouched behind a desk in the last row (we're cowards, that's why), we glare menacingly at the apoplectic, rabid Thing behind The Big Desk. Those Things are out to get us; we may lose a skirmish or so, but the final battle will be ours; therein lies Victory.

Books . . . Notes . . . Books . . . Notes . . . two of the most needed things nowadays. Yes, with the final examinations just around the corner of West Alisal and Homestead avenue, wouldn't it be proper to start reviewing now? It sure is!

People asked to give inspirational speeches usually give perspirational talks. A pint of perspiration (from each of the "listeners") means nothing to the speaker who gets lost in his rambling talk.

Some people have the most peculiar and oppressive characteristic of belittling the work of others and making mountains (even mountain ranges) out of trivial errors. They sure are an abnormal clan.

Sophs are Idiots?

This concerns all sophomores! Did you know that sophomore means an ignorant person pretending to be wise? Sophomore comes from two Greek words, "sophos" meaning wisdom and "moro" meaning an idiot. At any rate, you'll be out of that category next year when you become juniors.

This "I-shall-get-in-by-hook-or-by-crook" philosophy during games and dances is fast becoming a habit. But I think it can be stopped. It is unethical to attend an affair without paying one's due.

To all the college gents who love to stand in the hallway near the trophy case, would you mind giving way to the teachers and students who want to be in their classes on time? Thank you!

A reminder to the students who'll be needing blue books, IBM sheets, pencils, etc., on their final examinations, would you mind getting all those stuffs in the college book store now to avoid the rush?

Tryouts Scheduled For New TV Play

Tryouts for the new Hartnell college-community playhouse television show, "The Dancers," will be held next week in the college Little theater, according to Mr. Hal Ulrici, director.

Produced on the Philco television playhouse and now adapted for production as a short play, the production will require a cast of three men and seven women.

Featured in the show is a 16-year-old boy, "Horace," who finds himself dated with the prettiest and most popular girl in town, "Emily Crews."

The bashful teen-ager walks out on "Emily," only to meet up with "Mary Catherine," a girl with personality problems similar to his own.

The play is written by Horton Foote.

OPEN HOUSE SLATED

The social dancing class of Mrs. Jack Middaugh will hold an open house on Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the women's gymnasium.

Scene: Audio-visual room, Chico State college campus

Mrs. Gene Davis, journalism instructor, and five student reporters were ready to begin class when the door was flung open and two persons, masked and dressed in western attire, stepped into the room.

A girl's voice warned, "Don't move and nobody'll get hurt." "This is a stickup," shouted a husky male voice. He pointed a very authentic Colt .38 at the students, grabbed Mrs. Davis' purse, and the pair rushed out the door.

Wait a second! Things like this don't take place on a college campus. You're right. It seems that Mrs. Davis had secretly staged the whole thing in order to create a topic for the day's writing.

How does it feel to be popular. According to Miss Manausa it gets pretty annoying at times. She complained that the wolves drove her insane with phone calls after she had won her first trophy. Now, however, the receiver goes down with a dull thud.

Although Cal Tjader and his Jazz Quintet didn't seem to create much of a disturbance around Hartnell when they made their recent appearance here, it seems that Humboldt State and two other northern California colleges gave him a rousing reception in the weeks immediately following his concert here. All three schools boasted of turnouts of 750 to 1,100 students.

Only Elvis Pressley could draw a crowd like that in Salinas.

Curious 'Coon' Enjoys Varied Diet, "Boxing"

By DEMETRIA DA-ATON

Imagine the surprise of Duane Nascimento's mother when she opened a box postmarked Texas and found a live raccoon!

Duane, who resides in Morgan Hill, is a freshman majoring in elementary teaching. He was graduated from Live Oak Union high school in June and thinks that San Jose State college will be his next destination.

"Bobo," the raccoon's name, is two years of age and a mighty curious animal. He eats anything like any animal does and likes to supplement his diet with fruits, nuts and vegetables.

"I take my raccoon for a walk twice a week to make sure he gets some exercise," stated Duane. "This also helps to keep him tame and gentle to handle," he added.

"Bobo," who loves to "play boxing" when at home, depends upon the ponds and streams for his favorite food. This doesn't pose much of a problem for the Nascimento family, because they live in a place where there is a pond. They own a ranch of 14,000 chickens in Morgan Hill.

"The reason my raccoon is usually near the water is because he is a skillful swimmer," Duane said proudly. "He is a very excellent fisherman, and he washes his food before eating it," he added, smiling.

Hartnell Will Meet Menlo Oaks Tonight

By WAYNE UMBERTIS

The Hartnell Panthers will be entertained by the Menlo Oaks in their second league encounter tonight. The hot and cold Oaks, once figured to be in the thick of the league race, find themselves now battling for contention.

After a fast start, the Oaks were dropped by West Contra Costa and then manhandled by two Coast conference colleges in the conference tournament at Vallejo. Both Monterey and East Contra Costa drubbed the Oaks and sent them home in a hurry.

If the Oaks should get hot tonight the Harts could have a fight on their hands, but otherwise the Panthers should have an easy time disposing of the men from Menlo.

Returning to Salinas tomorrow night, the Panthers host the Pierce college Brahmas, defending champions of the Western States conference. The WSC is one of the most powerful JC leagues in the country, with such powerhouses as Compton, L.A. City college and Cerritos among the entries.

The Brahmas, though undefeated in league play, carry an eight and five won and lost record. Sharp-shooting guard Al Andreas, sporting a 19-point average, will lead the Brahmas.

On Tuesday night the always tough Fresno J.C. Rams will be in town to battle the busy Harts. The Rams possess an unimpressive record, but come from a fast conference and should be a big problem for Coach G. Ed Adams' men. John Hampton, Fresno push shot ace, is averaging over 20 points per game.

Jags Edge Cagers In League Opener

Nick Clock scored two baskets in the last five seconds Tuesday night as the San Jose Jaguars came from behind to defeat the scrappy Hartnell Panthers, 53-51, in the men's gymnasium.

There were many persons who felt the game was over when Center John Sudman deflected the inbounds pass which Clock recovered and turned into the winning basket. The clock stood, at zero, but the buzzer had not sounded.

Jim Mastin, who had 23 points, was the whole show during the first half, racking up 18 markers, taking many rebounds and playing a sparkling all-around game.

Center Bill Loveless took over the scoring burden during the second half, tallying 11 of his 19 points. He played one of his best games under the boards as the Panthers overcame a four-point halftime deficit and moved 10 points in front with five minutes left in the game.

Women Athletes To Attend Meet

The California Womens athletic and recreation federation will meet at Asilomar March 21 and 22. All Hartnell women are welcome to attend the conference, Susan Cassidy announced this week.

Ethyl Boutte gave the Interclub council report, and play day plans for Santa Rosa and Modesto were discussed.

Hartnell is a member of the planning board, along with Chico State, Stanford and California. Hartnell is in charge of entertainment.

In their most recent activity, the Hartnell basketballers were edged 36-34 by the Santa Cruz Women's Recreation league team. The visitors, coached by J. Colburn, trailed until the final minute of action.

Hartnell's Coed Courtsters

Sport Slants

By WAYNE UMBERTIS

The conference doormat for years, the Monterey Lobos seem to have come up with a potential basketball championship team. Although having been defeated by Allen Hancock college, the Lobos have been making quite a showing this year.

The big block in the Lobos' path for an initial Coast conference basketball championship is the San Jose Jaguars. The powerful Jags hold a win over defending state champion Allan Hancock, but have been defeated by Oakland J.C. and San Francisco City college. They were clobbered by the Cal. Frosh. Dark horse East Contra Costa could pull a few surprises, but inconsistency gives them little chance of going all the way.

Hartnell has had trouble polishing the corners and finding a workable unit. However, should the plague of injuries cease, jump-shot artist Jim Mastin and crew might climb up with the contenders.

Only Menlo, of this years Coast conference teams, finds itself in a position where a step up in the standings would take a minor miracle.

Six Home Games On '58 Grid Slate

A nine-game 1958 football schedule featuring six home games has been released by G. Ed Adams, Hartnell director of athletics.

The Panthers open their season Sept. 20 with Porterville furnishing the opposition in Salinas Union high school stadium. The following week, Cal Poly frosh return to the schedule after several years' absence. The contest will be played in Salinas.

Returning to the schedule after a two-year absence will be the powerful Compton Tartars. Hartnell meets Tay Brown's eleven at Compton Oct. 4.

After a week's layoff, Hartnell concludes the season with five conference games and one nonconference affair, a battle with Fresno in Salinas Nov. 21. Hartnell played Fresno three years ago.

The conference schedule includes: East Contra Costa, away, Oct. 18; Vallejo, home, Oct. 25; Menlo, away, Nov. 1; San Jose, home, Nov. 8; Monterey, home, Nov. 27.

GYM GEMS AHEAD

The Gym Gems continue to lead the intramural basketball tournament with five victories and no defeats. Trailing in second place are the Crisps and the Sweat Sox, both with identical 2-1 records. However, the Crisps hold a slim lead in the standings with a tie.

Basketballers Have 3-3 Record For Christmas Holiday Contests

The visiting Hartnell five made it a 3-3 record in the holiday competition, bowing to the San Jose Jaguars and Vallejo cagers, 60-53 and 69-68, while dumping Oceanside, Cal Poly Frosh, and Coalinga quintets, 101-67, 67-60, and 71-54. All but the Coalinga encounter, which was played on the home court, were tournament games.

Panther shooting ace Jim Mastin's 36 points in the Harts' conquest of the Oceanside five was a Hancock tourney record until broken by an Oceanside player's 39 points the following day. Hartnell lost to Allen Hancock 93-71, in the Hancock tournament finals.

Journeying away from their home court once more for non-league games over the week end, the Panther hoopsters lost to an improved San Jose Frosh and the Stanford reserve fives by 49-47 and 69-58 scores.

Fouls Cost Heavily

Unnecessary fouls committed by the Hart cagers in the closing minutes of the game proved costly to their cause against the San Jose five. Although the visitors tied the score at 45-even later in the game, the San Jose five was never headed. The score at halftime was 28-19.

Jim Mastin and Bill Loveless scored scoring honors for the locals with 12 and 10 points. Phil Netto, Ron Ross, Frank Padilla, Bob Flores, Don Bush, and Norm Steinback scored the remaining 25 points.

Except for the halftime score of 30-all in the Stanford game, the host team led over the Panther quintet throughout the encounter.

Mastin's 23 points was the highest score made in the contest. Teammates Loveless and Bush scored 18 and 10 points. Ross, Padilla, and Monte Andrus were the other contributors to the Panther cause.
